CHAMBER Connection

Vol. 02 Issue 04 November 2026

from the PRESIDENT

Matthew Guy

Becoming a Chamber member has been nothing short of a delight. The enthusiasm and commitment made by the staff of the chamber is remarkable. Constantly going out of their way to help improve our businesses and community as a whole. This year, Rhinebeck bank was able to commit to numerous events by volunteering, sponsoring and simply being apart of the local community. We would not be able to say that if it was not from the support of the Warwick Chamber of Commerce. Which brings me to my appreciation that this year Rhinebeck Bank is being recognized and being presented with the Commitment to the Community award at this years Gala. What we strive for at Rhinebeck Bank is to support our local residents in all financial aspects of life. By joining the chamber not only has allowed us to have a footprint in the Warwick Community but continues to inspire us to do more! We truly enjoy getting to support our Chamber of Commerce as they support us with our current and future endeavors. We look forward to maintaining our commitment for years to come and I could not be more proud of the relationship the Chamber of Commerce has with our community.

from the EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Stefanie Keegan

It is hard to believe that November is here. This year has been chock full of new adventures for the chamber, while we hold many of our traditions close to our heart we are always trying to enhance and improve what we do for our members and our community. For 87 years the chamber has been striving to support our business community and it is at the heart of everything we do. As business owners you have a boots on the ground experience of the ups and downs of business. But what is the chambers business? Our business is community. We try every day to build and pour into our community to keep the vibrancy and greatness of our beautiful Warwick Valley. As we wind down this year of growth and change- I want to thank all of our members for being part of our community- we could not do it without you, I look forward to the next season of growth and change and I am excited for 2027 to be another great year with amazing milestones for our chamber and our members!!!

from the EVENT COORDINATOR

This fall, my social media feed has become an unofficial tourism campaign for the Warwick Valley. People I went to college with are making their way to Warwick Valley Winery & Distillery for their quintessential fall weekend, and I'm watching from home thinking, when did my hometown become everyone's autumn destination?

It's funny how quickly the familiar becomes ordinary. While visitors are planning weekend getaways around the wineries, orchards, and village shops, those of us who live here can take it all for granted. Or, in my case, simply forget that it's October until the leaves are nearly gone.

With Taste of Warwick and Applefest behind us, we're turning our attention to the holiday season and the Chamber's upcoming events, including our 87th Annual Gala. And, of course, planning for the new year is already underway.

In the meantime, I may have to take a page out of our visitors' guide and make a little time for my own hometown. There's a good chance I'll run into someone who drove an hour or more to do the same!

Mary Collura

from the TOURISM COORDINATOR

The holidays are shaping up to look a little different this year in my house, as we'll be hosting out of state guests. Two families, 4 teenagers, 4 adults-2 whom grew up here, one family from California hoping to experience a white Christmas.

I find myself in a funny position of seeking out the information and resources that I myself, so proudly, offer. Looking at accommodations, activities, restaurants open, where can I get a tray of ziti, what do teenagers like, how can I hit a note of nostalgia, how to deliver the best east coast holiday experience I can find.

I'll let you know how it goes!

But its like I always say, you gotta know it to promote it!

Cheers to forty incredible years of Servpro! Team Johnson is a cornerstone of our community and a true family affair. For 40 years, the Johnsons have built more than a successful family business. Frazzleberries

24 Main St., Warwick, NY

October 14, 2026

We had the honor of celebrating Frazzleberries Country Stores's 30th Anniversary along with the expansion of their store! Within these 30 years the business has had help from three generations. Founded in 1996 by Marybeth Schlichting, joined by son, Jerry Schlichting in 2004, followed by his wife, Katie Schlichting in 2012, and today their daughters, Libby and Ellie Schlichting also follow in their footsteps by working at Frazzleberries.

Oak & Rail

2 Oakland Ave., Warwick, NY

October 16, 2026

The Warwick Valley Chamber of Commerce celebrated the grand opening of Oak & Rail Studio, located in the Village of Warwick. The historic building dates back to 1862, when it was known as the Warwick Valley House, a hotel that welcomed travelers and summer visitors. Over the years, it has been home to a barber shop operated by Albert Wright, The Stage Law Firm, the Warwick Valley Dispatch, and, in the 1980s and 90s, Talk of the Town hair salon, which eventually became Accola Hair Salon.

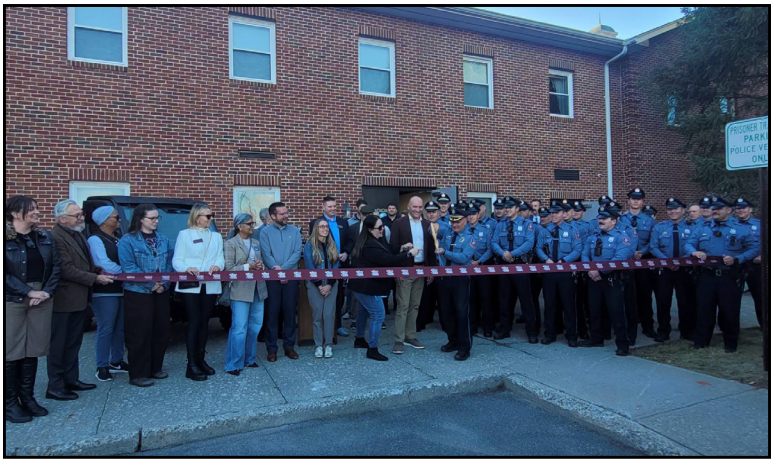

Now, Oak & Rail Studio is bringing a new chapter to this historic space, keeping hair at the center of its business while creating a place for local artists, independent creatives, and the community to come together. We look forward to seeing this next chapter unfold in the Warwick community.

Warwick Police Department

132 Kings Hwy.,Warwick, NY

October 19, 2026

It was our honor and pleasure to celebrate the renovation of the Town of Warwick Police Station alongside Chief Rader, Supervisor Dwyer, Mayor Newhard and the incredible men and women of the Warwick Police Department who are so dedicated to our community. Chief Rader thanked NYS Senator Skoufis for assisting in obtaining a grant that covered the renovation cost completely, Coli Construction, and DeGraw and DeHaan Architects.

The Small-Town Advantage:
We're Better When We Work Together

One of the best things about doing business in Warwick is that so many of us actually know each other. We see each other at Chamber events, around town, and often through the clients and customers we share.

That connection matters even more right now. Small businesses across New York and the Northeast continue to deal with higher costs, cautious consumers, and uncertainty about growth.

The good news is that small towns have an advantage: we can help one another in ways larger markets simply can't.

Sometimes it's a simple introduction or recommending another local business. It could also include collaborating on an event, sharing a post, or simply reminding a customer that there may be a great local option before they search elsewhere.

Those small actions add up. Research continues to show that money spent with independent businesses is more likely to circulate back through the local economy.

The stronger our neighbors' businesses are, the stronger our whole community
